RULES & PROCEDURES

A fee for providing fire protection services is hereby established and shall be charged to each owner of residential, multi-family and commercial property within the Borough. For purposes of this Part, each unit in a multi-family dwelling which contains a cooking stove or shares a common kitchen facility shall be considered a multi-family unit and shall be charged the fire protection services fee.

Commercial properties that include multi-family units as part of the property must pay the multi-family fee per unit in addition to the fee for commercial property.

Owners of commercial property containing one or more businesses shall be billed the Commercial Fee for each business on a per business basis not a per property basis.

Collection Procedure; Penalty for Delinquent Accounts.

1. Commencing December 1, 2011, the fire protection services fee shall be billed and collected on an annual basis within 60 days of billing by the Borough or its designated agent.
2. In the event the fire protection services fee remains unpaid for a period of 60 days from the date of the billing, the fire protection services fee shall be declared delinquent and a penalty of $10 dollars shall be added. For each period of 30 days thereafter in which the fire protection services fee remains unpaid, there shall be an additional penalty of $10 dollars up to a maximum of $100.00 dollars plus costs of collection.
3. Accounts not collected by the end of each calendar year shall be made the subject of suits in assumpsit or filed as municipal liens by the Borough Solicitor.

Penalty.

1. Any person, firm, corporation or volunteer fire department that violates a provision of this Part, or who fails to comply therewith, or with any of the requirements thereof, shall be, upon conviction thereof, sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $100 dollars or more than $1,000 dollars for each violation, plus costs, and in default of payment of said fine and costs, to imprisonment to the extent permitted by law for the punishment of summary offenses. Procedures for this collection of fines and penalties for default of payment shall be in accordance with Chapter 1 of this Code.
2. A separate offense shall arise for each day or portion thereof in which a violation is found to exist or for each Section of this Part found to have been violated. All fines and penalties for the violation of this Part shall be paid to the Borough Treasurer.
