Staying fit, having fun

Beginning in early June, the Recreation Department offers learn-to-swim classes, water aerobics, adult-only swim times – and the opportunity for young people to join our championship swimming, synchro and tennis teams. Borough kids also participate in community soccer and baseball leagues that are staffed by enthusiastic – and dedicated – parent volunteers.

Some of our most popular events are the Fourth of July Community Day and Biathlon, Fall Hayride Light-Up Night and Concerts in the Parks. There are also numerous “just for fun” activities, such as neighborhood bbq parties, coat drive events and family social nights at the pool – that keep residents connected to one another and their community.

Find out more about Forest Hills at www.foresthillspa.org

Please address all inquires to:
Forest Hills Borough
4400 Greensburg Pike
Pittsburgh, PA 15221
Telephone: 412.351.7330
FAX: 412.351.7337

This brochure was produced by Forest Hills residents who are members of the Community Relations Advisory Board.

Writing: Rosemarie Moschella
Photography: Jane Freund
Graphic Design: Randy McCafferty

Special thanks to Cheryl Collins Valyo and Renee Pekor

As a first time home buyer, I was looking for a reasonably priced home in a safe neighborhood that is convenient to the city.

Rebecca Watkins – with Mokie – learned about Forest Hills from a friend who grew up here.

Incorporated in 1919, Forest Hills was a stopping place along the historic Lincoln Highway system (U.S. Route 30), America’s first transcontinental highway. Many early “settlers” of the borough worked for Westinghouse Electric Corporation, which provided a livelihood for thousands of local employees in research and manufacturing; in the late 1920s, radio broadcast technology was pioneered by KDKA on Greensburg Pike.

When you think of “home”, thank Forest Hills.
Welcome to Forest Hills

Nestled in the eastern suburbs of Pittsburgh, Forest Hills is a perfect balance of intimate neighborhoods and major metropolitan access. We’re a friendly community of 6,800 people, rich in services and amenities.

Named “Tree City USA” by the National Arbor Day Foundation every year since 1986, Forest Hills’ natural, quiet beauty is striking.

Close to it all

Forest Hills is just off the Parkway East – within a 15-minute drive to Oakland’s universities and hospitals, downtown Pittsburgh’s commercial and cultural districts, and regional attractions such as Kennywood and Sandcastle theme parks. Residents walking in the great outdoors or commuting by car or at a reasonable pace can benefit from a convenient fast/Park & Ride to downtown.

In addition to our own business district along Ardmore Boulevard, the area features a variety of shopping experiences, including the Waterfront, Monroeville Mall, Edgewood Towne Centre – and the more eclectic shops of Squirrel Hill and Shadyside.

Want to get away from it all? We’re only an hour from ski resorts and state parks in the Laurel Highlands.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you’re looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

A vital business district

Many people live and work in Forest Hills, including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that have found its advantages to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 28,000 cars traversing the business district on a daily basis, our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Safe, secure neighborhoods

Our community is protected by a full-time professional police force and ambulence service along with a dedicated volunteer fire department. We have a professional borough manager and staff who are always eager to serve the residents who call Forest Hills home. Whether driving snowplows at 5 a.m. on a snowy winter morning or building a new deck at the pool lodge, our public works crew keeps the borough shipshape year-round.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boundaries of Forest Hills.

We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.

“Let’s leave it like a country in the city, with all the hallmarks of an urban environment ready.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.

Dedicated people = Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Flower Show, Westmoreland Books and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Placed to play

“We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.

Dedicated people = Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Flower Show, Westmoreland Books and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Placed to play

“We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.

Dedicated people = Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Flower Show, Westmoreland Books and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Placed to play

“We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.

Dedicated people = Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Flower Show, Westmoreland Books and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Placed to play

“We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.

Dedicated people = Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Flower Show, Westmoreland Books and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Placed to play

“We love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— John and Lynne Clark – with daughters Charlotte and Kelli – were drawn to their contemporary home’s park-like setting on a wooded hillside. “It’s like living in the country, with all the advantages of an urban environment nearby.”

“I love the sense of community in Forest Hills.”

— Sara and Josh Haynes purchased the home built by Sara’s great-grandparents in the 1920s, which makes daughter Madelyn the fifth-generation of her family to live there.

“This has been a wonderful place to live and raise children. We wouldn’t change a thing about it.”

— Ann and Harold Milton discovered Forest Hills 40 years ago while seeking an affordable city alternative.

The “crown jewel” of our parks system is the beautifully landscaped pool and tennis court complex that residents consider to be one of our finest amenities. The Main Park on Braddock Road includes two ball fields, a large playground, basketball courts and picnic pavilions. Parents with small children can walk to five neighborhood playgrounds that are just a stroller ride away.

The Forest Hills/Westinghouse Recreation Center on Greensburg Pike includes regulation-size ball fields and a charming lodge that can be rented for corporate meetings and private celebrations for up to 500 guests.

At the Forest Hills branch of C.C. Mellor Library, residents can check out the latest best sellers or research a school project. Preschoolers and their parents participate in interactive storytelling and crafts activities.
Welcome to Forest Hills

Nestled in the eastern suburbs of Pittsburgh, Forest Hills is a perfect balance of intimate neighborhoods and major metropolitan access. We're a friendly community of 6,800 people, rich in services and amenities.

Named “Tree City USA” by the National Arbor Day Foundation every year since 1986, Forest Hills' natural, quiet beauty is striking.

Close to it all

Forest Hills is just off the Parkway East – within a 15-minute drive to Oakland’s universities and hospitals, downtown Pittsburgh’s commercial and cultural districts, and regional attractions such as the three rivers and Cantilevered Farms. Residents visiting in the great Pittsburgh area can come to or take advantage of our express service (with reserved, or convenient Park ‘N Ride) to downtown.

In addition to our own business district along Ardmore Boulevard, the area features a variety of shopping experiences, including the Waterfront, Monroeville Mall, Edgewood Towne Centre – and the more eclectic shops of Squirrel Hill and Shadyside.

Want to get away from it all? We’re only an hour from ski resorts and state parks in the Laurel Highlands.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you’re looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

A vital business district

Many people live and work in Forest Hills, including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that have found an advantageous location to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 20,000 people traversing the business district on a daily basis, our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Safe, secure neighborhoods

Our community is protected by a full-time professional police force and volunteer fire department, along with a dedicated fire department. We have a professional laborer, care manager, and staff members who price themselves to remain competitive and serious. We are serious about thriving of new businesses, and are willing to work with you in any way to achieve your goals.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs.

The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as pre-primary – within the boundaries of Forest Hills.

A vital business district

Many people live and work in Forest Hills, including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that have found an advantageous location to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 20,000 people traversing the business district on a daily basis, our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Safe, secure neighborhoods

Our community is protected by a full-time professional police force and volunteer fire department, along with a dedicated fire department. We have a professional laborer, care manager, and staff members who price themselves to remain competitive and serious. We are serious about thriving of new businesses, and are willing to work with you in any way to achieve your goals.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs.

The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as pre-primary – within the boundaries of Forest Hills.
Welcome to Forest Hills

Nestled in the eastern suburbs of Pittsburgh, Forest Hills is a perfect balance of intimate neighborhoods and major metropolitan access. We're a friendly community of 6,800 people, rich in services and amenities.

Named “Tree City USA” by the National Arbor Day Foundation every year since 1986, Forest Hills' natural, quiet beauty is striking.

Close to it all

Forest Hills is just off the Parkway East – within a 15-minute drive to Oakland's universities and hospitals, downtown Pittsburgh's commercial and cultural districts, and regional attractions such as Kennywood and Sandcastle theme parks. Residents working in the greater Pittsburgh area commute by car or take advantage of express bus service (with a convenient Park 'N Ride lot) to downtown.

In addition to our own business district along Ardmore Boulevard, the area features a variety of shopping experiences, including the Waterfront, Monroeville Mall, Edgewood Towne Centre – and the more eclectic shops of Squirrel Hill and Shadyside.

Want to get away from it all? We're only an hour from ski resorts and state parks in the Laurel Highlands.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you're looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

A vital business district

Many people who work and own businesses in Forest Hills, including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals, the community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that we too found it advantageous to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 1,000 companies, the community provides a vital business district on a basic basis; our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Safe, secure neighborhoods

Our community is protected by a full-time professional police force and intricate services along with a dedicated volunteer fire department. We have a professional borough manager and staff members who pride themselves on being concerned and responsive to citizen concerns and requests. Whether developing information of “it’s a mean bone” warning or considering a new Christmas lights contest at the pool lodge, our public officials keep the borough shipshape year ’round.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boroughs of Forest Hills.

A real estate business

People buy and sell many of Forest Hills’ homes including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that we too found it advantageous to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 1,000 companies, the community provides a vital business district on a basic basis; our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you're looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

Strong community

Forest Hills residents give of themselves because they care about their neighbors and their community. Local volunteer efforts include Meals on Wheels, Paws on Wheels, fruit bowl volunteers, Late Bloomers and Forest Hills garden clubs, Lions Club and Rotary.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boroughs of Forest Hills.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you're looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boroughs of Forest Hills.

A real estate business

People buy and sell many of Forest Hills’ homes including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that we too found it advantageous to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 1,000 companies, the community provides a vital business district on a basic basis; our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you're looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boroughs of Forest Hills.

A real estate business

People buy and sell many of Forest Hills’ homes including merchants, real estate brokers, business and medical professionals. The community has attracted a number of local and national corporations that we too found it advantageous to call Forest Hills “home.” With more than 1,000 companies, the community provides a vital business district on a basic basis; our community provides unlimited opportunities for those who seek to “grow a business” in a thriving, supportive economic environment.

Affordable, gracious living

Homebuyers are attracted to a wonderful variety of architectural styles – ranging from Arts & Crafts and Tudor designs of the 1920s and 30s to the contemporary designs of today. Our hills remind many visitors of other “trend-setting” cities where comparable properties sell for significantly higher prices. Whether you're looking for a start-up or an upscale dwelling, a home in Forest Hills ensures you a tremendous buy for your housing dollar.

Excellent schools

Forest Hills is one of 12 communities that comprise the Woodland Hills School District, which has earned accolades for academic excellence and wide recognition for its high school sports and performing arts programs. The district includes a range of outstanding elementary, intermediate and middle schools, and the high school’s within walking distance of many Forest Hills neighborhoods. Students may also choose from among several quality private and parochial schools – as well as preschools – within the boroughs of Forest Hills.
Staying fit, having fun
Beginning in early June, the Recreation Department offers learn-to-swim classes, water aerobics, adult-only swim times— and the opportunity for young people to join our championship swimming, synchro and tennis teams. Borough kids also participate in community soccer and baseball leagues that are staffed by enthusiastic—and dedicated—parent volunteers.

Some of our most popular events are the Fourth of July Community Day and Midnight Fireworks Light-Up Night and Concerts in the Parks. There are also numerous “just for fun” activities such as neighborhood block parties, costumed games and family social nights at the pool—that keep residents connected to one another and their community.

Find out more about Forest Hills at www.foresthillspa.org

Please address all inquiries to:
Forest Hills Borough
4400 Greensburg Pike
Pittsburgh, PA 15221
Telephone: 412.351.7330
FAX: 412.351.7337

This brochure was produced by Forest Hills residents who are members of the Community Relations Advisory Board.

Writing: Rosemarie Moschella
Photography: Jane Freund
Graphic Design: Randy McCafferty
Special thanks to Cheryl Collins Valyo and Renée Pekor

“In a fast-paced, busy world, I was looking for a peaceful, quiet place to go, where you felt very safe—a place where you could take a walk in the city.”
— Rebecca Watkins— with Mokie

“We are going to move to Forest Hills because it’s a very nice place to live.”
— Forest Hills resident
Beginning in early June, the Recreation Department offers learn-to-swim classes, water aerobics, adult-only swim times—and the opportunity for young people to join our championship swimming, synchro and tennis teams. Borough kids also participate in community soccer and baseball leagues that are staffed by enthusiastic—and dedicated—parent volunteers.

Some of our most popular events are the Fourth of July Community Day, Midnight Fall Hayride Light-Up Night and Concerts in the Parks. There are also numerous “just for fun” activities—such as neighborhood block parties, cost-sectional games and family social nights at the pool—that keep residents connected to one another and their community.

You're at home in Forest Hills

Incorporated in 1919, Forest Hills was a stopping place along the historic Lincoln Highway system (U.S. Route 30), America’s first transcontinental highway. Many early “settlers” of the borough worked for Westinghouse Electric Corporation, which provided a livelihood for thousands of local employees in research and manufacturing. In the late 1920s, radio broadcast technology was pioneered by KDKA at its facility on Greensburg Pike.

Rooted in tradition
When you think of “home” think Forest Hills

As a first-time home buyer, I was looking for a reasonably priced home in a safe neighborhood that is convenient to the city.”

Rebecca Watkins – with Mokie – learned about Forest Hills from a friend who grew up here.

For more information, visit www.foresthillspa.org

For more information, visit www.foresthillspa.org

This brochure was produced by Forest Hills residents who are members of the Community Relations Advisory Board.

Writing: Rosemarie Moschella
Photography: Jane Freund
Graphic Design: Randy McCafferty
Special thanks to Cheryl Collins Valyo and Renee Pekor